Discrimination Complaint Filing

How to File an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Discrimination Complaint

Who can file an EEO Discrimination Complaint?
USDA employees and applicants for employment who believe they have been subjected to employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age (if 40 or over), disability, reprisal (for prior participation in an EEO activity or having opposed discrimination), political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, parental status, or genetic information, have the right to file an EEO complaint.

The EEO complaint process consists of the informal process, and the formal process. If you wish to file an EEO complaint, you must begin with the informal process.

Informal EEO Complaint Process
You must contact an EEO Counselor within 45 days of the date of the alleged discriminatory act, event, or in the case of a personnel action. Contact the EEO Counselor that services the agency or office you believe discriminated against you.

The EEO Counselor will:

- Ask for basic information about your complaint;
- Ask for information to contact you and your representative, if you are represented;
- Advise you of your rights and responsibilities; and
- Give you an opportunity to choose to resolve your complaint through EEO counseling or Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR).

If the complaint is not resolved to the satisfaction of all parties during the informal EEO complaint process, the counselor will issue the employee a "NOTICE OF RIGHT TO FILE (NRF)" a formal EEO complaint. The Notice will explain how and where to file your formal EEO complaint. A Complaint of Employment Discrimination Form will be provided with your NRF. Upon receipt of this Notice, you will have 15 calendar days to file a formal EEO complaint.
