Affinity Group Listing of Interpreters and Translators

The following list of Interpreters and or Translators is consistent with our mission as a Land-grant University providing equality and accessibility in regards to any and all programs, events and or activities supported in whole or in part of federal financial assistance. The State of Maryland (date noted in footer below) Limited English Proficient (LEP) population (ACS, 2015) is 347,459 (6.35 percent). LEP persons are those with English not being their primary language and/or who have a limited ability to read, write, speak, or understand English (Executive Order 13166). The top seven languages for Maryland as determined by the Human Resources Management and Compliance Programs are as followed:

Spanish, French, Chinese, Korean, Russian, Vietnamese, and Tagalog

Questions relating to this listing are to be directed to the Coordinator of Organizational Policy and Compliance Programs, AGNR Office of Human Resources Management and Compliance Programs.
